GIRLS DAY SCHOOL TRUST

Girls Day School Trust (GDST) is the UK's leading network of independent girls' schools. They wanted to refurbish their 3rd floor London office to create a modern, vibrant environment that would complement their corporate culture.

A key part of the project was to implement modern and convenient storage solutions within the office, achieved with low and mid-height steel lockable cupboards.

The office also features a large StorageWall area incorporating lockers of varying sizes for personal staff storage with some coloured doors to create a sleek and vibrant environment.

The open plan office area was fitted with bench desking systems that included fabric and Perspex desktop screens to create privacy within the individual work areas. The desks featured full cable management along with monitor arms to allow for a clear desk space and modern feel.

The offices featured several informal meeting areas. The first area included bespoke high back banquette seating to allow for an element of privacy while retaining the informal atmosphere. The second area incorporated several informal meeting rooms, created with a combination of glass and solid partitioning. The meeting rooms also featured smart StorageWalls that co-ordinated with the minimalist appearance of the rooms.
